

Word	Definition	Sentence
Obey	To do what one is ordered	The government has asked all people to obey the new health rules.
Object	That can be seen or touched / take exception to	Many citizens object to the governments mandatory mask rules.
Observe	To watch a tentatively	They will observe the rate of new infections before deciding to make new rules mandatory.
Occupy	To be busy / to take possession of	We are waiting for the date on which we can move into and occupy our new home.
Occur	To take place	The date upon which we take possession is October 3rd.
Of	Forming a part of	That is the third of the month October.
Off	Not in operation / at a distance in space or time	When we first bought the house the date seemed far off to us.
Offensive	Unsavoury / rude	Many people are angry at the new rules and become offensive when speaking to authorities.
Offer	To present for acceptation / to suggest	It is easier to give criticism then to offer a solution.
Office	A place of business where desk work is done	There seems to be a transition for workers to stay at home rather than go into the office to work.
Officer	A person of authority	It seldom benefits you to use offensive language when speaking to the officer.
Often	Frequently	It is not often that governments from multiple countries can work together for a common good.
Oil	A thick liquid used as fuel / a mineral	Our government is moving away from its support of the oil industry in favour of renewable energy.
Old	having existed long	Old ways of doing things are often set aside in favour of new technologies.
On	1° on top of 2° in operation	The pandemic keeps going on and on.
Once	one time	For once our government seems to be truly working to the benefit of the
Only	one and no more	At this time only one vaccine has been authorized in our country.
Open	1° opposite of "close" 2° not shut or closed	It is best to remain open to new ideas.
Operate	to work	We cannot continue to operate our business in the middle of this pandemic.
Opinion	a judgment not backed by proof	Many doctors are of the opinion that the virus will not be fast to go away.
Opportunity	a possibility to seize	Rather than a problem our government has looked at this time as an
Opposite	place face to face or back to back	We are taking the opposite position to our neighbouring country in regards
Oppress	to keep down unjustly	Government should not attempt to oppress the voice of their population.
Or	used to give another choice	You can do one or the other but you cannot do both.
Order	a command	The governments order for social distancing has been extended again.
Organize	to form as a structured whole	We must organize ourselves or we will waste too much time.
Other	the remaining one	I have chosen to take the other route instead of the one that was
Ounce	a unit of weight	I would not give this story 1 ounce of credibility.
Our	belonging to us	It is our responsibility to voice our opinion.
Ours	belonging to us (pronoun)	We earned the money therefore it is ours to do with as we please.
Oust	to remove from a position or office	They tried to host him from his position of authority but failed.
Out	away from inside	The president has moved out of the presidential residence.
Over	above in place or position	It is not wise to Enger someone who has authority over you.
Owe	to be in debt to	My father taught that we all our loyalty to the person who signs our
Own	of or belonging to	We chose to all a smaller home rather than borrow money.